Fashion has always played an important role in my life and growing up I always aspired to be a trendsetter. I also dreamed of becoming a fashion designer who creates affordable clothing for women of all sizes. and when I discovered the Design Assistant - Dresses with Free People. I am certain that my qualifications make me a perfect candidate for the position, and I also feel that this is an excellent opportunity for me to grow professionally and as a person.

Highlights of my experience include

- Internship Experience:

I have excelled as a Design Intern at Therese Tailoring Boutique playing a key role in the development of a new plus-size womenswear clothing line. a brief overview of responsibilities was responsible for identifying new trends to support effective product design and development, product and sample sourcing, inventory management, illustrating sketches, merchandising, and a range of computer software skills.

- Design Coursework:

Recently completed a bachelor of arts degree in fashion design at Mount Mary University. Throughout my education, I have excelled in textiles, fashion sketching, computer-aid fashion design, trend forecasting, product design, and creative development.

- Creative Portfolio:

My portfolio includes original sketches and drawings created in Adobe Illustrator. It can be viewed by visiting <https://savannahturner17.wixsite.com/fashionportfolio>

I am confident that my experience and skills, combined with my great interest in fashion and design, would help me to thrive in this role with your company. As I grow into a bold designer, I am excited to embrace the ideals of Free People Company. I genuinely believe that fashion has the power to impact and influence the world.

Thank you for your time and consideration, and I look forward to speaking with you soon.

Sincerely,

Savannah Turner
